

Photo Courtesy of Macore

Oxalis depressa

Genus	Oxalis
Variety	depressa
Exposure	Full Sun to Part Shade
Height	4"
Spread	4"

Description Rosy pink blooms with yellow throat are held above low-growing, cloverlike leaves. Excellent in beds and containers, or used as filler with larger bulbs and perennials.

Care Plant in well-drained soil. Drought tolerant once established.

Bloom Time Summer- Early Fall

Drought Resistant

Pollinator Friendly

Deer Resistant

Tender Perennial

USDA Hardiness Zone: 8(10°)