

Photo Courtesy of Macare

Lavandula Hidcote

Genus Lavandula

Variety `Hidcote Blue`

Exposure Full Sun

Height 12-18"

Spread 18"

Description Fragrant, deep lavender blue flower spikes above mounds of gray green foliage. Excellent for rock gardens, cutting gardens, mass plantings, and border edges.

Care Sandy, well-drained soil. Mulch in winter. To dry, cut before fully open; hang upside down in cool, airy spot.

Bloom Time Summer

Fragrant Y

Drought Resistant

Pollinator Friendly

Deer Resistant

Perennial

USDA Hardiness Zone: 5(-20°)