

Photo Courtesy of Terra Nova® Nurseries, Inc.

Tricyrtis Gilty Pleasure

| | |
|--------------------|--|
| Genus | Tricyrtis |
| Variety | 'Gilty Pleasure' |
| Exposure | Part to Full Shade |
| Height | 20-24" |
| Spread | 16" |
| Description | Small, lavender pink, purple-spotted, orchid-like flowers appear in fall above golden, fuzzy, linear leaves. Brings late color to shaded beds or containers. |
| Care | Grow in moist, rich, humusy, acidic soil with regular water. No fertilizing needed in good soil, and no deadheading required. |
| Bloom Time | Fall |
| Patent | USPP #13688 |

Pollinator Friendly

Perennial

USDA Hardiness Zone: 5(-20°)