

Gaultheria procumbens Wintergreen

Genus	Gaultheria
Variety	procumbens
Exposure	Part Shade to Shade
Height	4-6"
Spread	12"

Description Waxy, nodding, bell-shaped, white flowers, followed by edible, bright red berries, above a prostrate, creeping mat of glossy, leathery, dark green leaves. Great as a groundcover.

Care Plant in moist, acidic, humusy, well-drained soil with regular water. If necessary, use a high-phosphorus fertilizer.

Bloom Time Summer

Pollinator Friendly

Deer Resistant

Perennial

USDA Hardiness Zone: 3(-40°)